What Keith Gray likes about Tim's Table: First time at this restaurant. We were going to see a show at Radlett so decided to try .Very impressed. The food was lovely and cooked so well.The service was good Will definitely go back..It would be nice to go back when we have more...time to maybe have a coffee etc,as we only had time for a starter and main . The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What Vanessa Williams doesn't like about Tim's Table: Service appalling, hors d'oeuvres and soup came together.We were rushed to order and the dishes we slung on the table. When asked if the table cloth could be changed due to some food spillage they did so very reluctantly.The portions were very small although the...food was not bad.For £67 per couple with a only a pot of Chinese tea and no other drinks it was not value ,would not go again.
