My wife and I called today for a coffee and ended up having the tapas for The tapas were larger than some places we've been to, and really can't fault the quality. Don't know her name but the young women with glasses was...lovely and very friendly and polite we got on really well with her. Nice setting and will return. It would have been a rating apart from the main door. Every time it was opened it was cold as it di... read more.
