What Rachel Lloyd likes about Zaal:

very nice food I've been going here for over yrs now and I still enjoy it the chef is fantastic at what he does.. one of the best curry houses I've been too in Swansea. Really friendly staff, food is great and really can't fault it at all. not a lot more I can say really except price has gone up a bit nothing else read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What Андрій Гнатюк doesn't like about Zaal:

My wife and I fancied a Indian takeaway as we hadn't had one in at least We opted for Zaal as we have had good food from here before. The food in this occasion was OK, but nothing special. Tandoori mixed grill some...of the meat was tough and the naan was soft and soggy. My wife had the tikka masala which she said was average at best. Even the mint chutney sauce was like water. All in all, an average meal all round. read more. If you feel like snacks, you should visit Zaal because they have tasty desserts that will surely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, there are also delicious vegetarian recipes on the menu.
