They sell crepes, pancakes, juices, coffees and teas only, so it's a limited menu but the food is great. They have many vegan options. The vibe is also really cool. There is outside seating and inside they have artworks and a library! I believe they also have special events. The owners are lovely and friendly and the prices are reasonable. The restaurant is about a ten minute walk going up Brixton Hill. Check it out! read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What Yasmine Smith doesn't like about Katakata:

That experience was very confusing. The menu apparently was printed before they changed some of the recipes and they had not redone it. To find out what was vegan and what not was not clear. Apparently we could have anything but not everything was vegan. ??? Definitely difficult to communicate. Two juices we ordered both seemed to be missing an ingredient judged by the colour and flavour. Same difficulty in understand... read more.

For breakfast, you can enjoy a rich brunch at Katakata, freely at your own will, Among the customers, especially fine juices are highly sought after. It should not be forgotten that there is a large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Moreover, the enchanting desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
