This is a lovely coffee shop; prices really good; lovely homemade shortbread; lovely relaxing atmosphere there's an area where you can choose a donated book to read with your coffee. The tea cakes are good too. read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What Andy

Parker doesn't like about Calm Coffee:

I came with great expectation after a recommendation. Decaff coffee was good although expensive and too hot, burnt my tongue on first sip! I found it lacking atmosphere and quiet rather than calm. No menu that I could see, I could only see cakes and...toast on offer. I only spotted the drinks menu on leaving high up hanging from the ceiling, way out of direct eye gaze. It would have been better opposite the counter w... read more.
