Wonderful. We had a stater of mussels between us and they were so so good that we ordered a second, then fish chips; both were fresh and delicious. Child had a pizza to her liking which meant she ate most of it. Service was...fine. Pints were nice too. Worth every penny. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Uncle Sams Cafe:

Visited the Mill times in September Ordered carvery dinners which when the came looked lost on the plate..we didn't have any children with us but these meals looked like children's meals...I asked could we have more veg and mash received it...we asked...for a jug of water which was served with no ice and tasted warm. Food tasted mediocre.. Approached counter to pay and was shocked to see I was being charged for the t... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious dishes from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good selection of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, The magical desserts of the restaurant also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the crispy and crunchy pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an traditional manner.
