I always say that it's most convenient having a cafe to pickup even a light meal, a coffee, tea, or cold drink in a large place where you're likely to spend some time at like a cinema or large exhibition. The Queenstown Story at the Cobh Heritage Centre is one such place. It's lovely sitting there sipping your cuppa in the beautifully restored old Cobh Railway Station platform. Mind you, the food is basic, tea, coffe... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about The At Cobh Heritage:

We have visited this restaurant for years and normally are full of praise for it. Unfortunately due to an extremely rude staff member who refused to let a year old child use the toilets it will be our last visit read more. The At Cobh Heritage from Cobh is a relaxed coffee house, where you can enjoy a snack or cake with a warm coffee or a sweet chocolate, Indulge in the impressive view of the delicious arrangements of the menus and also enjoy a excellent view of some of the local places.
