I've been staying at the Four Seasons hotel in St Fillans, which serves pretty mediocre food, so I was looking for an alternative. The Lochearnhead hotel is run by a hard working couple and all that hard work definitely shows in the restaurant. This is...great food, clearly created with a lot of love for cooking. Great atmosphere created by the wonderful host, so for my next stay at Loch Earn, the Lochearnhead Hotel... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Alison Welch doesn't like about The Lochearnhead:

Unfortunatley we had to cancel due to illness. We called the owners who were absolutely lovely and understood that due to hospitalisation and a highley contagious virus we were not able to attend our dates. They gave us hoseasons contact number and told us to just re-schedule on a different date. Contacted Hoseasons who said NO! basically. Lost 95% cost of the holiday. Thank you to the lovely understanding owners and... read more. At The Lochearnhead, fine meals from international cuisine are freshly cooked for you, You will not only have an attractive view of the deliciously decorated dishes, but you will also be offered a beautiful view of some of the regional sights. In this restaurant there is also an large diversity of coffee and tea specialties not to forget.
