What Ethan Graham likes about Gaby's Deli: Okay, but don't get upset. I asked myself to London on my recent trip to London if there were any good Jewish style delis I could visit. Gaby's was the overwhelming recommendation. A small place with limited seating was not full when I stopped on Sunday night. I had salt beef on rye with pickles. I have learned that salt beef is what we call American corned beef. The sandwich was tasty, but rather overstuffed by American standards... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its customers. What Fiona Miller doesn't like about Gaby's Deli: Gaby's is built around a hype as the famous deli which was saved from closure by a collection of celebrities, actors and Westend stars. Sure it has this rather New York deli chic thing going on, but I don't think it lives up to the hype. Outside the food looks amazing. Heaps of brightly coloured, inviting combinations, but my meal didn't blow me away. I can not deny that my pastrami bagel isn't good, but it is just a... read more.
