The menu of The Dragonfly from Newport includes 44 meals. On average, meals or drinks on the menu cost about £10. The categories can be viewed on the menu below. What Daisy Murray likes about The Dragonfly: The meal was lovely. I had booked deliberately as I had previously enjoyed the lamb main but that was not on the festive menu. The meal was good and the service excellent thank you Jamie. Overall would certainly recommend. The COVID safety measures were implemented well. read more. What Francesca Watson doesn't like about The Dragonfly:

we have booked online and requested a table with the toilets as one of our party is older. do not worry about asking! the grim waiter didn't like us to sit when he showed us on the table as far away from the toilets as they can. he told us online bookings are automatically assigned to tabs. in the ground when they ask a question, no one actually sees it! the service was also very slow. not impressed read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Dragonfly in Newport traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, Also, you shouldn't miss out on the delicious pizza, traditional freshly baked in a wood oven. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a sophisticated range of delicious and regional alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
