The Menu of Lion Star from Glasgow includes about 107 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about £9. What Freddie Lewis likes about Lion Star:

Food was fresh and tasty, only real drawback was our waiting times it took a long time for both our food and drinks orders to arrive at the table, which did affect our enjoyment of the meal. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX doesn't like about Lion Star:

We ordered several different things off of the menu as there was seven of us. Two kids vegetable pasta meals that had absolutely no taste whatsoever and Cajun chicken pasta which had such a bitter after taste that I had about 4 mouth fulls. Kids chicken nuggets and chips that the chips had been dipped in oil and straight back out, white and hard and chicken nuggets batter was mushy on the inside. Not a pleasant experience... If you crave for afters, Lion Star with its delicious desserts can surely make an end of it, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this eatery is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive selection of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
