It 's fantastic that a small village pub has a separate vegan menu with lots of choices. the place was nice, with friendly and attentive staff. I had the 'flat mushroom red pepper beetroot burger ' (it 's not a burger at all, just a slice of mushroom, a bit of red pepper, and a slice of beetroot in a bun, but pleasant anyway) with a side of the crispy tofu chips (not crips in the slightest, very very soft, but nice e... A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Stanhill in Hyndburn traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, there are also tasty vegetarian dishes on the menu. Many international meals are also known in the kitchen of the The Stanhill, The tasty desserts of the establishment also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
