Walked past this place and happy to find a vegan menu in the window. I had soup of the day, which after adding salt to was very good. Husband had sausage roll with salad. Really good homemade sausage roll although for the price we would have expected two. Staff we're really lovely and helpful. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. It's certainly always an experience to be in a typical saloon and to taste; to feel like a cowboy for once with a beer and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a delicious burger, The guests of the restaurant also consider the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. Moreover, there are numerous typically British dishes on the menu that are guaranteed to excite every Englishman's taste buds, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here.
