coffee is amazing and so are the sandwiches!!! the place does need a bit of a cosmetic overhaul though, four different coloured walls and the bench seating is splitting so its covered in duck tape! employees are also lovely! ETA: was back a few months ago, and the place looks much nicer cosmetically!! They've also added a few new things to their menus in the deli and bakery! read more. What Ann S doesn't like about O'hehirs Bakery:

Worst lasagne I've ever had, tasted like half a bottle of dried rosemary fell in. Hard, gross top layer of stringy mozzarella against congealed pasta, tasted like it was days old, lucky they asked me if I wanted chips with it, although would have preferred if they told me this would add 2 quid to my bill, making it the worst tenner I've ever thrown away on a lunch. Eeuk! read more. A visit to O'hehirs Bakery is particularly valuable due to the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties. Also, there are oven-warm breads available, complemented by an array of cold and hot beverages. The breathtaking scene of a diverse selection of attractions is an additional draw for this locale, Generally, the dishes are prepared in a short time and fresh for you.
