We took my parents for a belated birthday lunch and what a treat it was. The family-run pub's staff were all very friendly and helpful, a good selection of beers and the food was amazing. Properly home-cooked, superb flavours and good-sized portions, it was actually...the best pub meal we've all had in a long time. We sat near the roaring logburner and the ambience of the place was perfect. A fantastic experience, we... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What Bruce Morris doesn't like about Victoria Inn: This pub was a recommendation from a family member. Great hosts, very happy, friendly and welcoming staff.

IMO food was average, everyone enjoyed their meals. I asked for a smaller portion of roast beef and was pleased they accommodated, however, for me the roast beef...meat was disappointing, very thin slice not cut from a joint and over cooked. Good selection of veg and nice roast potatoes. Husband enjoyed his home... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only flavorful meals, but also a large and comprehensive assortment of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, Moreover, the enchanting desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
