Our latest visit was as a table of twelve for a New Year's Eve bash. Service was excellent by well trained and attentive waitresses who had a great sense of humour needed as we all ended a little drunk. Food was a 6 course meal...and free glass of sparkling wine. Very good value and lots of fun! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Wayne Bailey doesn't like about Sands:

Went here for a special offer 5 course meal for £30 with a free drink included. Each course was tiny and after the whole meal, if I'd been on a diet, would have not left me feeling guilty at all. The service was great, and...it was a nice touch to introduce the chef and his young apprentice, but with the meat dish somewhat overlooked I feel the lad would best learn his trade elsewhere. Not to be left out is the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant.
