We tried the sunday brunch- the dish and the drinks were perfect! The tea was served in a clay pot and clay cups, and was delicious as well! I would definitely recommend for the taste, quality of the food but also for the atmosphere and service. Can't wait to try the dinner thali read more. What User doesn't like about Chandigarh: The food was good, but there was a serious lack of choice, both in food and in drinks only a choice for a main, maybe 6 wines and no spirits at all (retain their use in cocktails on the menu). And then we were kicked out at 10:30 because they wanted to close what is bad enough, but my reservation email said by 11:00. And at 10:15 we could not order her tea because the kitchen had closed. Honest Indian restaurants off... read more. If you crave for desserts, Chandigarh with its fine desserts can easily make an end of it, One also prepares menus finely and freshly with original Indian spices. If you want to have breakfast, a tasty brunch awaits you, Also, the visitors of the establishment love the extensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
