Came on Saturday night for a one night visit. Very friendly staff, nothing too much trouble. The included breakfast was a really good cooked breakfast. The rooms seem like they have been newly refurbished to a good standard. Really comfortable bed. Although we were upstairs and a lively bar was below, we hardly heard a thing when we got back to the room. Would 100% recommend a stay here read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What dazzerbay doesn't like about Railway Crossings:

Believe it or not this is few mins walk from our house. On a few occasions we have tried to eat here to no avail. The times we have tried we have been told they have run out of food and we have left. Not much of an impressive start with new owners. Got to point stopped bothering. Pub itself is OK but can get very busy but that can't be a bad thing. read more. For the small hunger in between, Railway Crossings from County Durham offers tasty sandwiches, healthy salads, and other small meals, as well as cold and hot beverages, Lovers of the English cuisine are impressed by the comprehensive selection of traditional dishes and enjoy the taste of England. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Inthemorning a versatile brunch is offered here.
