What Katie Rose likes about Asia Style:

Far Eastern version of a transport cafe! ... and I mean that as a compliment. The salt and pepper squid was amazing, the portion sizes of the steamed cod in sauce and the ginger duck were more than a match for our appetites. As first-timers we found the menus confusing, and people around us were eating things which didn't appear to be on any of them. The decor and atmosphere are pretty basic bright lighting and wood... What Quentin Watson doesn't like about Asia Style:

This is the classic West End (well almost) venue scenario.....starts off great albeit basic, becomes a big success, bish bosh bash.....prices double quality oot the windae! read more. A visit to Asia Style becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive range of coffee and tea specialties, Moreover, one can find an very good variety of various Malaysian national dishes such as Wantan, Roti, Naan and also Ayam in the menu.
