I dined in the Priory View Restaurant several times during my stay in Great Malvern. Breakfast was average with typical buffet offerings available. Eggs, sausages, bacon, toast, cold cereal, fruit, beans, and tomatoes. I also dined here twice on average fare for dinner nothing wrong with the food just not very interesting. The best starter I had between the two evenings was a salmon pate served with toasted bread goo... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a rich brunch at The Priory View, freely at your own will, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
