A very good place to meet for a three generation family gathering. We much enjoyed our early supper recommend the starters of larger dough ball plates with dips and lemony thyme chicken wings and buffalo mozzarella salad. Main course salad portions generous and everyone enjoyed their various pizzas. Rosa our waitress was excellent and coped with a smile and patient good humour with the confusion of 9 different family... read more. Terrible service then mains came yes a salad is a cold meal but for £15 and a Nicoise you'd expect some level of attention to it. It was freezing cold with an egg on the top that was frozen. My partners pizza was cold. No one to complain to. Finally came to take our plates I explained that it actually wasn't very nice at all and that i always got the same salad and this time it's as disgusting and freezing. He told m... read more.
