We called in for tea and cake after a day of sightseeing. I had the orange and chocolate cake, which was a lovely combination with the added bonus of a slice of chocolate orange on the top. The tea was in a lovely glass...teapot, great to judge when to pour it. My husband had a warm fruit scone and said it was the best he's had even better than the ones at National Trust tea shops, which is high praise indeed. Lovely... read more. Rude staff. Two ladies sat chatting at one of the tables as I walked in. I said hello and both chose to ignore my greeting. No one was in the shop or tearoom. The eldest of the ladies got up and started busying herself tidying stock. I stood at the counter to purchase tray bakes on offer. They both again chose to ignore me! What a shame as Ford is beautiful read more.
