Situated around the corner from the busy part of The Lanes, we called in without a reservation and were seated in the front section of the restaurant. The seating was a little scruffy but the staff very friendly. Our starters arrived promptly and very both hot and tasty. The children had pizzas for their mains, which were of a good size and cooked perfectly and our pasta and chicken dishes were both cooked just right... read more. What KazzaHead doesn't like about Kaydees Place:

Went to Kaydees after work on 16th August, have been here 3 or 4 times before with same group of friends and have to say we were all left very disappointed- feel really bad I am leaving pretty negative comments now where as before did not bother to type in a review of how good it was. Service was ok although we had to ask 3 times yes 3 times for a jug of water!!!! food good however portions so much smaller than befo... read more.
