Found Jules Kitchen yesterday, great mug of tea for just £1.20 and had we known beforehand, we could have taken the dog in too. Food looked good too, and not silly prices interesting place too we will be back! Mick, Carol and 'Gladys ' the cockapoo. Given it five stars, although must stress that having had a large lunch at home beforehand, we didn 't sample the food this time but we will on next visit! read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Lewis Miller doesn't like about Jules Country Kitchen:

If you want to eat awful and not healthy than best you camp in. Food is cold, staff are rude and faces like they don't wanna be there. Short woman was very rude and you could hear them shouting out the back. Some man who appeared to be friends with them messing around outside. This isn't what i like to see when eating out.

HUGE let down girls. They need to be more polite and have a better manner and not shout so much... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only exquisite meals, but also a large and comprehensive assortment of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, Likewise, the customers of the establishment prefer the comprehensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Lovers of the British cuisine are impressed by the comprehensive diversity of traditional dishes and enjoy the taste of England.
