The place from Leeds offers 218 different menus and drinks on the card at an average £6. What User likes about Editors Draught:
a perfect place to stop for a pint or two and maybe some food. the location is great and the staff was very friendly and welcoming. they have a few tvs so they can see the football etc. that is good. I have ordered a black scratch and they were probably some of the best I ever had until the most hairy came in the world, the bag could not make me eat it. a great place, I'll be back read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. For those who want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Editors Draught from Leeds is a good bar, Those who are passionate about the British cuisine will enjoy the large variety of traditional meals and indulge in the taste of England. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a large range of scrumptious and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, Particularly with the bite-sized, Tapas you can't do anything wrong, because there is something for every palate.
