What a gorgeous place and even more gorgeous staff we phoned after 5 asking for a cream tea the kitchen had finished their daily scones by this time. Zoe and charlotte called the kitchen who offered to make a fresh batch and apologised for the 20 25 wait!! How lovely of them all my elderly mum was with us and it really did make her day we were served hot fresh scones which were fabulous and the lovely Harry on front... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What doitpf doesn't like about Shorecrest:

Absurd difference in service from breakfast to dinner. At breakfast everything was streamlined and efficient, servers were polite and courteous and couldn't do enough. Come the evening, everything was sloppy, staff seemed confused and took far too much time to put a simple drinks order together. Not a great experience, though food was consistently good at least!
