Stopped here for dinner , husband had fish and chips and I had bacon and cheese burger would definitely recommend both dishes . The staff are excellent very helpful and very happy. Definitely will be visiting again read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The

Royal Oak:

Beef burger was brilliant though fatty chips could have been better.....a lot better! Liver pate' had no taste, bland and to be fair, I should have sent it back. My wife left most of it.Puddings. Chocolate sundae was a thrown together mush....at best.Probably best avoid this place going by the other poor reviews. read more.
