The only thing that I find offputting is that coming from the food industry I can't help noticing when my fresh deli is handled without gloves. Hygiene standards need to be observed...especially when dealing with fresh meat. read more. What User doesn't like about Nima

Delicatessen:

Bought two packs of halloumi cheese Got home and noticed that there are expired, as there are two dates on the products original one and one used by the shop Original one days the items are expired, one from march and one from April...
