For starters, the service was too slow, although friendly enough. Ravioli was lion and had to get back in the kitchen to warm up. Although taste finally okay that didn't make a good impression, and we couldn't eat together in the company. Others had ordered the business lunch that on the board would have been specially reported baby carottes. Maybe with a magnifying glass. To shut this down, then. We ordered fresh mi... User doesn't like about Made In Antwerp:

Although the food was delicious, this couldn't make up for the bad service. We got the impression that the young waiters were up against their will. Waiting for apero, not offered a drink during the meal. bread didn't show up till after the main dish. Too bad. The night before that, everything was fine. read more. Made In Antwerp from
