We have eaten here several times and never had anything less than excellent food. I have special dietary requirements and Kristian, the chef, deals with them ease The staff are always friendly and helpful. I would strongly recommend you give this place a try please don't be put off by the exterior appearance, the food more than makes up for it. read more. What Simonwaspro8 doesn't like about Silverdale:

To start I had garlic mushrooms, however it was more like a soup with a strong salty flavour. For main course I had the belly pork with a plumb reduction and to be fair the chef nailed it. It was served with a well seasoned crushed new potato and braised red cabbage on the side. For desert I had the cheese board which again was really good. The girl behind the bar who was also waitress done a good job and was tipped... read more.
