Food was delicious. Service was excellent. Rose wine I ordered was a perfect accompaniment to my stir fry. Seating was out door due to the new covid regulations but it was a beautiful September evening. A thoroughly pleasant experience over all. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Saba Clarendon Street:

I wasn't given the food in the overall review because of the prices. We were there for a theater meal. To eat in Saba for the first time and had high expectations given the reviews. While the flavors and the service were good, I felt that my beef was tired and not freshly cooked. The duck starter was also tired of looking. 43 € White wine was not cold enough and came in a small wine cup and with only 4 ice cubes. For... read more. At Saba Clarendon Street in Dublin, tasty, juicy, delicious meat is freshly roasted on an open flame and served with delicious sides, This sports bar is a popular hangout for customers who enjoy watching the latest games or races on the big screen while enjoying food and drinks.
