What User likes about Julia's Tea Rooms: An afternoon in Ely on a summer like autumn day, and a walk in the cathedral precinct; what better than a pause for tea and refreshments? Julia's has the ideal location, opening out on one side, to the cathedral green, and on the other to...The High Street. And the food and drinks on offer do not disappoint. A very fine pot of tea for two, with lashings of tea available and excellent refreshments. Pleasant staff and... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Julia's Tea Rooms: Very near the cathedral. Staff were ware, polite and friendly and the cake was great as too was the bacon bap. The latte however was very small (slightly larger then an expresso cup) and very strong read more. A visit to Julia's Tea Rooms becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, For a snack, the delicious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are suitable.
