Friendly and quick service; we were able to just walk in and have a nice Sunday lunch roast without having to book. The food was generally good and generous in size we supplemented the roasts with cauliflower cheese highly recommended if you like this and we were then too full to try puddings; just to note that there are specials for dessert. We will definitely come again. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What Majority21 doesn't like about The Robert Kett Meet And Eat Pub:

I ordered a beef roast (£11.49) and a pint of St. Austell Tribute Ale (£4.30). The service at the bar was friendly and my meal arrived promptly. The plate was pre-warmed and the portions were large. There were 5 types of vegetables: carrots, broccoli, cauliflower, French beans and peas. Four roast potatoes, which were good, a Yorkshire pudding, a ball of stuffing and lots of gravy. I had three slices of beef, but half... read more.
