Hi there, this hotel is easy to get to by car A64 towards York then take the A1237 follow to you get to the A19 roundabout turn right for York and it's 2 miles approximately on your right. We enjoyed our stay on Christmas day and found the hotel very clean. The staff were very friendly and went out of their way to make us feel welcome. The hotel was very warm and cosy, the breakfast was very good. We will be staying... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather. What Carolyn12 doesn't like about Beechwood Close:

Food average, we had 2 curries a little bit dry, one tarragon chicken, a bit tasteless but veg was good and 1 lasagna which was nice, Apple and raspberry crumble which was average and a lemon tart that was soft. Staff were really friendly and chatty and food was delivered quick. To be fair they had a wedding that day and a World Cup match so we're very busy and we did drop in on the off chance. So would give them another... read more. A visit to Beechwood Close becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive range of coffee and tea specialties.
