Another gluten-free haven, booking for indulgent full afternoon tea, with best ever sponge cake, along with a solid collection of teas and beverages. Well worth finding, a little 'out of the way' with parking at back, and on street parking out front. Delivery from local butcher's van outside yet another sign that local know how and fresh produce combine to deliver an experience worth your travel read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Jane M doesn't like about Cooks Family Vintage Tea Room:

Went to tea room for first time today ,what a shambles ordered 3 drinks which we finally got and 3 sandwiches which we never got. After waiting 40 minutes just for sandwiches,a couple who came in a good 10 mins after us got there cooked meal and for us to be told they lost our order. They have no customer service as they should have at least gave us 1 free drink to say sorry but nothing. Think they are more concerned... read more. Are you looking for sweets?
