Went in as a party of four to consume a light lunch. We had a variety of filled roles and a toastie. All food was freshly made with good ingredients. Very tasty fare. The premises decor and furnishings reminded me of cafes back in with the wooden panels on the walls, the tables had granite tops. Chairs had side bars to rest arms on. A vast improvement on your average cafe found as part of a chain. Staff excellent and... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Puddy:

What a very poor and shoddy cafe, what they have on the dirty falling apart menus is not what you get on a plate. Anything above star must have been written by the owner. I ordered a breakfast it consisted me of deep fried...bacon and sausages a slice of tomato not even a half tomato mushroom beans and an egg all served on what can only be described as a child's plate. My partner had a prawn jacket potato the potato... read more.
