The place from London offers 103 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average £5. What User likes about Chai Ki (toddy Shop:

Great food. Music a bit too much for a nice quiet dinner. The target is probably mid to mid but prices fairly high for that target! Excellent delicious food, highly recommend if you're looking for something unconventional. To the management : tables are still relatively close to each other for the staff to spray the tables with cleaning products from distance while neighbouring tables full of food and people eating... Buttered chicken was delicious, but all other three meals we ordered were awful. Especially the roasted aubergine dish, it was undercooked and dry to chew. They stopped serving their brunch menu, which is a big shame. read more. At the moment one might start to consider possibly eating healthier; exactly for these thoughts, Chai Ki (toddy Shop's menu offers a large diversity of healthy menus, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Meals are also prepared here, tastily and freshly with typical Indian spices.
