Nothing not to like for us here. Wonderful country pub in one of the most scenic villages in the Chilterns. Photogenic on the outside, spacious and comfortable inside (tables are very well spaced). On a sunny day why not sit outside either at the front overlooking the village pond or in the garden at the back. Service is truly fantastic and friendly and Damien Ng the Chef produces good, hearty pub food. We shared the... read more.

When the weather is nice you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. WLAN is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about The Greyhound Inn:

Disappointed. Felt like fast food. Quick turnaround but no real service. Roast beef was over cooked and not enough gravy. Had chocolate cheesecake for dessert which was their 'special', completely gone off and smelt like sick. We told the staff and they took it away...but nothing else was offered and nobody came to apologise. Don't waste your money here, there are plenty more lovely pubs in the area which do MUCH bet...
