As Hilton members, we received complimentary breakfasts during our vacation stay. The buffet had a vast selection of hot and cold foods. I can't say much for the powdered eggs, but they were consumable if you added cheese and tomatoes (hint: go for the made-to-order omelettes). There were some gluten-free options, muffins I believe. I thought the breakfast was good, and service was attentive. After reading other review... read more. The

What AndreaS560 doesn't like about Terrace At Hilton London Docklands Riverside:

Below mediocre! Prices way too high for the quality of the food. I had a chicken burger and my friend had the vegetarian pie. Mine was fine, albeit not very hot. My friend's was burnt and dry. Called the waiter over and not one apology. No doubt in my mind that the pie was a freezer reheat job. Gross. She asked to send it back and he was fine about it. She ordered a salad for speed as the replacement.... wow how long... read more.
