Restaurant itself is not particularly welcoming, bit cold and soulless. However, the service was really good (it was quiet though) and so was the food. There was nothing particularly exotic, but what we had was well cooked, fresh and had a good balance of flavours. Decent bottle of wine too. Wasn't even particularly expensive either.

Breakfast however was awful. read more. What katibee1970 doesn't like about La Brasserie At The Manor Of Groves:

We had lunch here for my sisters birthday. Food was excellent, but service was appalling! We were the only ones in the restaurant and only one other party in the foyer, but service was very slow. I had sachets of mayonnaise almost chucked at me across the table whilst my sister had gotten hers in a small pot. And to top it all we were over charged. Don't think we'll be going back.
