I have eaten several times with colleagues on red lions. recently we went shortly before the peculiarity changed the hands. therefore I am uncertain how much will change, including drinks, menu, personal. so I will have to review myself again in the framework of the new management. read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What bryanedwin doesn't like about Red Lion:
Pleasant enough pub, lacking in imagination. What looks like a ping and ding menu must struggle to compete with the Swan at Salford, just down the road. Warm welcome, but only one beer offered on tap. Must be the price they have to pay to landlords Charles Wells. read more.
