We had a lovely dinner, with great food and service. The menu isn't large but the options are really good so it's hard to choose! We really enjoyed our meals, and the desserts, ohhh my! The prices are very reasonable, and the quality is excellent read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is free WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What chi11er doesn't like about The Arts Brasserie:

Staying at the hotel have eaten lunch and dinner there. The menu is all easy griddle, microwave or fried food. Which is a real surprise considering How long it took to prepare! The burger also arrived and missed the flavours sauces in the description and to add insult to injury the condiments were all sachet. The bar was SLOWER than an unmanned bar, and no table service if your in easy chairs. So you have to 'claim '... read more. The extensive range of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to The Arts Brasserie, Particularly fans of the English cuisine are excited about the extensive selection of traditional menus and love the typical English cuisine. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Don't miss the chance to try the tasty pizza, prepared fresh in an traditional way.
