I took my mother for lunch on her birthday. The food was delicious. We both had the Gravadlax and wild mushroom risotto, then shared the apple brioche tatin and chocolate brownie. Portion were just right for lunch. The service friendly and unhurried. Will definitely return and recommend to others. read more. What User doesn't like about Britten's:

For a birthday party to Brittens. had visited the restaurant before and was ready to return. Unfortunately, the experience did not live until the first visit. The staff was friendly and the young staff was helpful, but they did not let us know about menu changes until we were about order, which was disappointing, with selected interesting dishes, just to say that they were no longer available! Overall a pleasant even... read more.
