Food was tasty but portion size for mains did not justify price. Sunday lunch option as advertised on website not available. No atmosphere in restaurant. Waiting staff did not know the menu nor were aware of beverages available from the bar. As a pre-Christmas Sunday family get together we were left disappointed and subsequently did not pay the service charge of which we were asked times if we wanted to pay it. Havin... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Caley's Brasserie in Windsor traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast. Even if you're not so famished, you can treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, Also, the customers of the restaurant love the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
