All i can say is this is the best place to eat in Nairn and probably in the surrounding area. Food is awesome, the menu has a good mix of food advertised and as I've eaten there so many times I have tried just about everything at one time or other and i have never been disappointed. If I could recommend one plate that is my favourite, it is chicken fajitas, they are awesome (I always ask for an extra wrap as you get... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What Koolkelly1123 doesn't like about Mack's Cocktail Grill:

We came in to Macks mid week and we were not greeted at all, we sat down and then the waitress came over with the menus it seemed like we were a pain as she had to do some work. She was not very polite or welcoming. The food was very good as per usual. I think the waitress is in the wrong job as does not come across friendly at all. My score is for the food not the service!!
