We were staying in the York Pavilion and ate in Langton's Brasserie/Restaurant on four nights three nights in the restaurant and we had a bar snack on the fourth night. The A La Carte menu was varied offering a choice of dishes and vegetarian options. The food was well cooked and well presented We both had the sirloin steak on one night and it was excellent actually had some flavour which isn't always the case now... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. WLAN is available free of charge. What

LisaStigre doesn't like about Langton's Brasserie:

The food here is nothing in particular and when you see what you get, it's expensive. We had fish for maincourse and a dessert afterwards since there were so little on the maincourse plate. Since it's a place that many use for weddings they should be able to do better. Only a few of the staff was brilliant, sad to say. The sandwich with tuna that we had the day before the meal with friends were ok, but not more than y... read more. At Langton's Brasserie from York they serve different tasty French menus, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Furthermore, there are many typically British dishes on the card that make the English heart beat faster, Besides the tasty sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks also make a good snack.
