Called in for a coffee before going for a walk in the adjacent countryside. Very friendly, helpful staff. Plenty of seating inside (not dog friendly) and outside (dog friendly), with some of the outdoor seating being under cover in case it's raining. The coffee was good and, although we didn't have any food this time, we have on previous occasions and, then, the food was as good as the coffee. read more. Maybe I visited too late in the day? Because when entering the cafe we were greeted immediately and asked what we would like; at this stage I couldn't even see what was on offer. I was advised cold drinks were in the lower counter, which made me feel like this was all was on offer at this time; it was around 3pm. I also felt pressured into actually buying a drink. She wasn't rude, but I felt rushed. The shop was nice... read more.
