Overall the food at The Greek Larder is tasty but the price and the service let it down. I'd suggest going for breakfast or a mid afternoon snack. It's the perfect place to catch up over a coffee with friends but I wouldn't suggest eating here if you're in a rush. Lunchtimes are pretty busy and our waitress, who was very pleasant and attentive until she took our order, disappeared on us half way through our meal and... read more.
