My daughter has just moved to St Margarets and we came here for lunch. We had our little dog with us and were made to feel very welcome by the owner. A very popular place with the locals, which is always a good sign! We had the crayfish and advocado salad, which was lovely. The coffee was also good. Both indoor and outdoor seating. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather. Are long waiting periods for meals unpleasant to you?
