We dined here on the second evening of our stay, having enjoyed the restaurant food but found it rather pricey.

The food comes from the same kitchen and the menu is less restricted. We enjoyed the local mussels, the French onion soup, the baked Brie and the chicken liver parfait. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WiFi is available without additional charges. What Thomas V doesn't like about Llwyn-y-brain:

They try very hard to make this a special restaurant, but it really isn't. Design, views and atmosphere are very plain. Service is sincere, but confused. Menu is good and varied, but the food quality is mediocre such as pre-packaged desserts and a selection of cheeses in wax wrappings. Could have been much better. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Llwyn-y-brain in Gwynedd traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle. For breakfast a delicious brunch is offered here. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
